Tasco obtains distribution of Simmons Quality Riflescopes, Spotting Scopes and Binoculars

Tasco Sales Australia, founded in 1961, are pleased to announce the distribution rights of Simmons optical company based in the USA. Since 1983, Simmons has established itself as a visionary leader in high quality, high-value riflescopes and binoculars. For over 25 years hunters and sportsmen alike have looked to Simmons for extraordinary optical innovation and rugged durability.

Simmons riflescopes

Simmons riflescopes not only deliver spot-on accuracy, innovative features and enviable performance, they're also built to last. For outstanding precision that will last for an untold number of hunts, Simmons outperforms all others in its class. Review our entire line of fine sporting optics and you'll soon discover why so many trust Simmons to help make their dream hunt a reality.

Simmons Spotting Scopes

Featuring fully coated optics held firmly in place in a hard-sheet aluminum case, Simmons spotting scopes deliver targeting results in full brilliance almost as fast as you can punch holes. Powerful and lightweight Simmons spotting scopes are equally at home in the field, at the shooting range or even while bird watching.

Simmons Binoculars

A reliable must-have for the avid sports fan, Simmons ProSport compact and full-size binoculars bring the action up-close and in vivid clarity like no other. Featuring high-quality, fully coated optics, and available in a wide range of magnification options and configurations, ProSport Binoculars are engineered to deliver brilliant, high-resolution images, with excellent contrast and the fullest detail possible. Plus, ProSport Binoculars are encased in tough and durable rubber armor, for a positive grip and added protection in any weather conditions.
